Overview

Curro celebrates 25 years of excellence in education in 2023. The group is pleased to report strong growth in revenue and profitability for the six months ended 30 June 2023. Recurring headline earnings for the first half of this year increased by 34% to R203 million (2022 H1: R152 million) and the group's operating margin expanded to 17.0% (2022 H1: 15.3%).

Financial results for the six months

Curro's weighted average number of learners for the first half of 2023 increased by 3% to 72 385 learners (2022 H1: 70 519) and revenue increased by 16% to R2 389 million (2022 H1: R2 060 million).

Tuition fees increased by 14% due to the growth in learner numbers, coupled with annual fee increases. Revenue growth was supported by an increase in ancillary revenue, which was R53 million and 31% higher than the previous period. Discounts granted decreased to 7% of tuition fees from 8% in the previous period.

Employee costs increased by 11% and other expenses by 24%. On a like-for-like basis, if the acquisitions of HeronBridge College during the prior period and Courtney House International School in the current period are excluded, employee costs increased by 8% and other costs by 21%.

Furthermore, other expenses increased in relation to the growth in the number of learners and the normalisation of campus activity to pre-pandemic levels. Accordingly, the ratio of other expenses to revenue in the current period was higher than the previous period, driven by additional extramural activity and increased costs associated with the growth in ancillary services.

The expected credit losses of R78 million provided for during the first half of this year were similar to the R76 million provided in the first half of last year. The remaining debtor's book, net of the expected credit loss provision, consists of R194 million (2022 H1: R175 million) of actively enrolled accounts and R90 million (2022 H1: R74 million) of inactive accounts. The ageing and quality of outstanding accounts improved during this period and the group is benefiting from disciplined collection strategies.

Schools' EBITDA (earnings before interest, taxation, depreciation, amortisation and head office expenditure) increased by 20% to R716 million for the first half of 2023, while EBITDA (after head office expenditure) increased by 21% to R566 million (2022 H1: R467 million).

Headline earnings and headline earnings per share ('HEPS') increased by 24% from R164 million to R203 million and by 26% from 27.5 cents to 34.6 cents, respectively.

Recurring headline earnings and recurring headline earnings per share ('RHEPS') increased by 34% to R203 million (2022 H1: R152 million) and by 36% to 34.6 cents (2022 H1: 25.5 cents), respectively.

Earnings per share ('EPS') of 33.4 cents for the period under review increased with 21% from the 27.6 cents in the previous period.

In evaluating these results, shareholders should take into account that certain items are included in the calculation of EPS but are added back for purposes of the calculation of HEPS and RHEPS.

Curro's Meridian subsidiary received non-recurring long-overdue education subsidy income of R25 million during the previous comparable period, which was treated as non-recurring. This subsidy income was included in the calculation of EPS and HEPS but was removed for purposes of the calculation of RHEPS in the prior period and thus represents the key difference between RHEPS, HEPS and EPS in that period.

Funding and cash flows

Curro generated 17% more cash from its operations than the comparable period. After higher tax and interest payments and lower inflows from changes in working capital than in the prior period, the group generated R607 million in cash from its operating activities, 2% higher than in the previous period.

Total debt, net of cash and investments in money market funds, reduced from R3.127 billion on 31 December 2022 to R2.991 billion on 30 June 2023. During June 2023, GCR Ratings upgraded both the long- and short-term national scale issuer ratings assigned to Curro by two levels, from BBB+(ZA) and A2(ZA), to A(ZA) and A1(ZA) respectively, with a stable outlook.

The board declared an annual dividend on 2 March 2023 and R65 million was paid on 17 April 2023. It is the board's policy to pay 20% of recurring headline earnings as an annual dividend on the premise that growth in cash generation shall continue in the future.

Curro's business operations are resilient and the group is in a healthy financial position.

The company acquired and cancelled 2.4 million of its shares for R19.3 million up to 30 June 2023. Up to the date of this report, the company has purchased and cancelled a total of 10.3 million shares for R88.3 million in aggregate.

Investment

Curro's primary objective in the short to medium term is to support and increase the capacity utilisation of its existing facilities.

Curro invested R312 million in its business during the period, which includes the acquisition of Courtney House International School. Curro plans to invest up to R800 million in capital projects to maintain, replace and expand facilities in the 2023 year.

Other investing activities of R41 million in the statement of cash flows represent the aggregate net decrease in money market investments and other financial assets (2022: R41 million decrease).

Prospects

Curro's strategy to enhance shareholder returns while the portfolio of schools matures is firmly on track. The energy, potential and achievements of the learners inspire all those at Curro, and the group is committed to continue to provide excellent education to as many learners in Southern Africa as possible.
