IMPLATS WELCOMES THE WITHDRAWAL OF CRIMINAL CHARGES AGAINST IMPALA

Impala Platinum Limited (Impala), a subsidiary of Implats, was charged on 17 April 2020 with alleged contraventions of certain regulations issued in terms of the provisions of the Disaster Management Act 57 of 2020.

Mark Munroe, CEO of Impala's Rustenburg mining operations, appeared in the Bafokeng Magistrate's Court held in Tlhabane, Rustenburg, on 17 August 2020, in a representative capacity on behalf of Impala, in respect of the abovementioned charges. All criminal charges in the matter against Impala as represented by Mark Munroe have been withdrawn.

Implats and its subsidiaries continue to prioritise and advance global best practise measures to help slow the spread of the coronavirus. These include amongst other measures, operating in full compliance with all relevant statutory requirements applicable to the jurisdictions where we operate. We continue to collaborate and engage openly with all key stakeholders in this regard.

Implats reiterates its support for Mark Munroe and its management teams, who will continue to undertake all operations in a legally compliant and responsible manner.
