RECOMMENCEMENT OF OPERATIONS

Further to the announcement released on the Stock Exchange News Service on 14 July 2021, the Company is pleased to advise that following the abatement of local social unrest, its production activities have resumed with effect from Friday, 16 July 2021. The property loss sustained by the Company was limited to theft of a few small non-critical items and minor damages.

A sense of calm prevails as Pietermaritzburg gradually returns to normal. The Company acknowledges and appreciates the efforts made by Government and the security cluster in restoring law and order and extends its gratitude to employees and community members for their contribution and support to local clean-up operations.
