Update on disposal of interest in Bokoni Platinum mine

Anglo American Platinum notes the Cautionary Statement released by African Rainbow Minerals Limited ("ARM") on 28 October 2021 noting that it is currently in discussions regarding its potential acquisition of Bokoni Platinum Mine from its current owners, Anglo American Platinum and Atlatsa Resources Corporation.

Anglo American Platinum confirms that discussions are ongoing with ARM on the disposal of Bokoni Platinum Mine and the terms of the proposed transaction are yet to be finalised.

The Bokoni Platinum Mine was placed on care and maintenance in 2017 and the objective of the sale process is to identify an appropriate owner with operational, technical and financial capacity, to restart and operate the mine in a safe and sustainable basis, to support economic growth and job creation in the area and the broader Limpopo province.

Anglo American is a leading global mining company and our products are the essential ingredients in almost every aspect of modern life. Our portfolio of world-class competitive operations, with a broad range of future development options, provides many of the future-enabling metals and minerals for a cleaner, greener, more sustainable world and that meet the fast growing every day demands of billions of consumers. With our people at the heart of our business, we use innovative practices and the latest technologies to discover new resources and to mine, process, move and market our products to our customers – safely and sustainably.

As a responsible producer of diamonds (through De Beers), copper, platinum group metals, premium quality iron ore and metallurgical coal for steelmaking, and nickel – with crop nutrients in development – we are committed to being carbon neutral across our operations by 2040. More broadly, our Sustainable Mining Plan commits us to a series of stretching goals to ensure we work towards a healthy environment, creating thriving communities and building trust as a corporate leader. We work together with our business partners and diverse stakeholders to unlock enduring value from precious natural resources for the benefit of the communities and countries in which we operate, for society as a whole, and for our shareholders. Anglo American is re-imagining mining to improve people's lives.
