Executive chair, Shirley Maltz, commented: "We strive to provide our more than one million digital-savvy customers with quick, seamless and convenient digital shopping journeys and insights-driven financial services and retail products. We have invested extensively in technology and skills in recent years and built innovative platforms to achieve this goal. We recently announced an evolution in our strategy with a much stronger emphasis on building a comprehensive Fintech offering. The growth in Finchoice and the acquisition of start-up PayJustNow successfully set us on this journey. We have also made steady strides in returning the Retail business to form."
